

WisDOT operates boards on Trello as a free service for site visitors. Postings on WisDOT Trello boards are the opinions and comments of specific individuals, and may not reflect the position of WisDOT. Procedures and processes posted, as well as any advice given, are not sanctioned by WisDOT, and WisDOT makes no representation or warranty as to their validity, nor is WisDOT liable for any harm arising from such entries or from reliance on any entries. Participants should independently verify the validity of information prior to placing any reliance thereon.

Postings should be relevant to the specified board list. Postings that are off topic may be deleted or moved to a more relevant list. Participants should refrain from postings that do not address the original topic. Participants should select the relevant list for their posting and refrain from duplicate postings as duplicate postings will be deleted. Postings that are disruptive, illegal or objectionable will be deleted. Postings deemed as blatant advertisements will be deleted. Words or statements that are obscene, profane, defamatory, threatening, offensive, racist, sexist, or illegal are prohibited. Posting information in violation of copyright, trademark, patent, trade secret or privacy laws is prohibited.

WisDOT reserves the right to revoke the privileges of any person to participate. Determination as to revocation and the grounds therefore are within the sole discretion of WisDOT and are final.

WisDOT reserves the right to remove any posting(s) without notice at any time. Determination as to removal of a posting(s) and the grounds therefore are within the sole discretion of WisDOT and are final.

WisDOT reserves the right to discontinue any and all WisDOT Trello boards at any time.

<https://trello.com> is the property of Atlassian. Any users on the site are bound by the Atlassian Cloud Terms of Service.